Living for the One Who Branded Us...JESUS!

What another blessed Sunday we had! We all hope Pastor Mike is feeling better this week and able to be back next Sunday. Youth minister Oliver Mowat stepped up and filled in and did a fantastic job bringing a moving message about being prepared. He talked of compassion, commitment, courage and character. Luke 12:40 (NIV) says, "You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him."

We celebrated birthdays and anniversaries and praised the Lord in beautiful songs with the congregation and some specials by our band and singers.

Please remember those who are ill and suffering in your thoughts and prayers. We had many prayer requests as well as praises for what the Lord has already done.

Celebrate Recovery will have a special speaker next Friday night. Come and join us if you can.

Saturday, March 1 the monthly Ladies Fellowship will be at the home of Wendy Byrd in Emory. Come at 6:00 for an evening of fun, food and Christian fellowship with our cowgirls of faith.

Sunday evening at 6:30 is Bull Creek's monthly "Shoot the Bull" dinner. Bring some grub and come and join us as we visit with each other and share.

Don't forget the Hunt County Cowboy Gathering Ranch Rodeo on March 22 in Greenville. Tickets are on sale now.

Remember as the scripture says, "be prepared". If you stand for nothing, you'll fall for anything. Happy trails!
