Living for the One who branded us...JESUS!!

What a blessed Christmas it was. Besides being our Savior's birthday, it was such a beautiful time with family and friends. And the swirling of the snow on Christmas Eve just made it that much more special.

Pastor Mike's message on Sunday was titled "The Focus of Christmas" from Matthew 2, reminding us to keep this special story on our minds all year long, not just at Christmastime.

Last weekend's children's Christmas play, "For Unto Ya'll" was a great success. The kids and all the helpers hard work paid off. They did a fantastic job and entertained everyone with their sweet story.

This Sunday evening we had a "Shoot the Bull", "Going Away", "Wish for safe deployment and quick return" dinner for Sanders Walker. He's heading for Afghanistan in a few days.

If you don't have plans come up and join us at BCCC for New Year's Eve for a night of Christian fellowship, fun and food. "Sparky" the mechanical bull will be there for those of all ages to try their skills at.

Don't forget the monthly Men's Ministry breakfast Saturday morning at 8:00am. They had around 50 guys there last time.

Check out our website www.bullcreekcowboychurch.com for all the upcoming calendar events.

If you don't have a home church, come on up and visit us sometime. We have periodic newcomer meetings between the 2 services where you can learn a little more about what the cowboy church is all about. We'd love to have ya!!

Well, that's about it for this week. Hope you have a blessed year in 2010! Make that New Year's resolution! Exercise daily! Walk with the Lord! Happy Trails to all!
