Living for the One who branded us.....JESUS!!

What a beautiful week it has been. Old Man Winter is nippin' at our heels, but the glistening frost was so pretty.

Our attendance last week was 392 and this Sunday we had a good crowd again. The band got everyone in the spirit of the season with some great holiday music with a couple of beautiful specials by Patty and Penny. Pastor Mike's message was also so appropriate for the season, asking are you "In Need of Peace?"

"But as for me , I watch in hope for the Lord, I wait for God my Savior." Micah 7:7 (NIV)

The monthly men's breakfast was Saturday mornin' with a bone chillin' 23 degrees as those that cook arrived to start up the fire by 6:00am. They had a record number of about 50 fellas show up to eat the good grub and hear a inspirational devotional by Larry Davis.

Don't forget to make your donation or bring items for the Outreach Ministry's nursing home project. They will be at Green Acres in Emory on Saturday for the regular musical devotion.

There will be a Round Robin Team ropin' at the church arena on Saturday. Call the church for details.

Mark your calendars for the BCCC children's Christmas play "For Unto Ya'll". There will be 2 performances, one on Saturday, Dec. 19 @ 7:00pm and one for our Sunday, Dec. 20 10:30 service.

That's about it for news. Have a blessed week and remember that life is our gift from God.....Our gift to God is how we live our lives! Happy Trails!
