What a blessed week it has been for a lot of folks involved with B3C. We've had lots of activities going on. But then every week is blessed when you're living for the Lord.

Sunday's services were great with some good music, lots of praises and prayer requests, and a great message brought by Chan Peters in Pastor Mike's absence. He talked about the church working as a family of teams, helping each other as needed.

"The body is a unit, though it is made up of many parts; and though all its parts are many, they form one body,. So it is with Christ." 1 Corin. 12: 12

Friday night at the special Celebrate Recovery meeting was the concert by the Pearce Family Bluegrass Band. With the short notice we had we weren't sure about how much of a crowd we would have, but the Lord blessed us with over 125 folks there. It was an amazing night of entertainment, fun and fellowship.

On Saturday some of our cowboys went to a TFCC team roping. The only one that I heard about placing was our own Josh Hitchcock. He took a 1st, 2nd, and a 3rd in the different ropings.

B3C also had a team enter in the TFCC ranch rodeo in Sulphur Springs on Saturday. They placed 5th out of 20 teams. Rafter A Ranch out of Paris won 1st.

There was also a benefit play day at the church arena for young man with cerebral palsy. They had a great time and the top winners in each age group were Tomorrow Evans, Judd McCall, Jenna McCall, Colin Black and Darla Smith.

Guys, don't forget the monthly men's breakfast. It will be this Saturday at 8:00am at the Cotton Pickin' Theater in Point.

Parents, get prepared for VBS. The time is almost here. It will be Sunday evening through Thursday evening, August 9-13 from 5:30-8:00. Mission Impossible for Cowpokes is the theme this year. If you want to help in any way.....snacks, crafts, etc. please contact the church. They need help in all areas.

Another free movie night will be coming up August 16. More details later.

Well folks, that's about the news from our part of the country for this week. Remember Chan's message and be a part of the team for the Lord. Like Will Rogers said, "Even if you're on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there!" Happy Trails to all!!
