Living for the One who branded us...JESUS!!

What a blessed week it has been! Just a little cool snap to remind us all we ARE in Texas!

We had a fantastic crowd for Sunday services. Kids Corral children's church celebrated the Lord's Supper and the parents were able to go and join them for that part of their service. We had some good music and lots of praises and prayer requests.

Pastor Mike brought a moving message titled "Peeling the Onion of Forgiveness," talking to us about the meaning of forgiveness, how to forgive and what forgiveness doesn't mean.

"Forgive as the Lord forgave you." Col. 3:13 (NIV)

Saturday was the Hunt Co. Cowboy Gathering benefitting Women In Need. The weather scared a few of us away, including myself, but those who braved the weather said it was so much fun! Pastor Mike said it was cold, windy but "Western".

Don't forget this Saturday is the monthly men's breakfast. It will be at the church this time. Saturday is also the Spring trail ride for those interested. See Bob Bates for details. There's also a big roping in Terrell sponsored by 77 Productions and Bull Creek.

Remember to start bringing your wrapped candy and eggs for the big egg hunt on Easter Sunday after the second service. There's LOTS of kiddos so we need LOTS of candy.

On Saturday, April 18 at Bull Creek there will be a talent show and silent auction to benefit the Youth and Children's Ministry. Anyone interested in performing any kind of act for the talent show can notify the church and someone will put you contact with the right person. It should be lots of fun and quite entertaining.

There is a new singles Bible study group that's just started on Saturdays at 4:00pm at the church and the women's Bible study is on Monday evenings.

The second Sunday of each month is Bull Creek's Round Robin Roping at the church arena. And starting April 25 the Feedlot Sorting Series for 2009 begins. Books open at 9:00am.

Hope you all have a blessed week. Remember to look for the best in everyone. Instead of looking where someone has been—try looking at how far they've come. Happy Trails.
