Living for the One who branded us.....JESUS!!!

What a beautiful week it turned out to be! We got all the rain the good Lord meant for us to have, then some gorgeous sunshiny days to top it off, and all the other blessings we have to boot. What more could we ask for.

Our Sunday services with special music and speaker Jay Johnson of Open Range Cowboy Church in Whitney ended a full weekend of activities around Bull Creek. Friday evening we had a special speaker, Randy Byrd, the pastor from Higher Trails Cowboy Church at the Celebrate Recovery meeting. Then there was a fantastic fish fry with all the trimmings'and dessert. Next was the fun for the kiddos as well as the grownups watching the mutton bustin'. They had a great time. I don't have all the winners names but some of them were Dakota Dhane, Gene Beck, Mandy Ryan, and Cody Owens and Madison.

The Chuckwagon team had the wagon setup and the campfire going all weekend and a few spent the night Friday night and had that good ol' campfire coffee Saturday mornin'.

Saturday was a beautiful day with several ropings goin' on. The winners of the various ropings were for the #10 Match Josh Hitchcock and Robert Purser 1st, Blake Hohenberger and Chad Hohenberger 2nd and the Lucky Loser was Harvey Hohenberger and Chad Hohenberger, the #8 Round Robin Gene McCall and Shane McCall 1st and Michael Culberson and Chan Peters 2nd, #10 Numbered Chuck Patton and Linus Clark 1st, Scott Lehmand and Rick Taylor 2nd and Cody Mitchell and Chad Scott 3rd, and #12 Numbered Brad Carr and Jason Moss 1st, Chuck Patton and Linus Clark 2nd and Rick Taylor and Johnny Taylor 3rd.

During the day on Saturday there were hamburgers cookin' on the grill and that evening after the ropings the washpot stew, cornbread and Dutchoven peach cobbler was ready. Everybody had a full belly and sat around listening to some pickin' and grinnin'and singin' by some of the Bull Creek band members and joinin' in was Bob and Lynda Ferguson of Ridin' High Cowboy Church, as well as some cowboy poetry by Frank Johnson of Sulphur River Cowboy Church.

If that's not enough to make you tired just readin' it, by the time this article is in the paper the B3C band will have played at the Hunt Baptist Assoc. Annual meeting on Monday evening at Emory Baptist Church. We were very honored to be asked to play.

Next weekend is the Ladies Fall Retreat. It should be lots of fun. The theme is "Growing Up In The Lord".

That's about it for now. Have a fantastic week. Keep your feet in the stirrups and your eyes on the horizon! Happy Trails!
