09/20/09

By Deb McMerrell

Living for the One who branded us...JESUS!!

What a blessed week it has been! We had a good crowd for both services Sunday. It was nice to see the sunshine Sunday morning.

Pastor Mike gave a great message, continuing on "A Balanced Ride", talking this week about social balance. He spoke about loving each other, teaching each other, holding each other accountable, joining with each other like family, leaving the judging to God, showing we care for strays and riding with a purpose and plan.

"Live in harmony with one another." Romans 12:16 (NIV)

Last weekend was the sportsmens banquet. They reported lots of fun, good food and fellowship, but the archery shootoff in the arena was rained out.

The Outreach Ministry will be a Parkhaven Nursing Home in Greenville Saturday morning at 10:00am.

On Saturday the B3C Chuckwagon Team will be cooking turkey legs for sale at the Alba Country Fair, raising money for our Children's Ministry and Nursery playground equipment. There will be a parade that morning if anyone wants to go and ride. Then the B3C band will be playing in another cowboy church band showdown. Our time is around 5:00pm and the others are before us.

Bull Creek's Small Campfire Bible Study Groups will be starting a new series in a couple of weeks. Even if you don't attend Bull Creek you are welcome. There will be one in your area. Call the church to find out the closest host family to you. My husband Paul and I host one in Emory and our home is welcome to you.

Don't forget our youth gathering and Pastor Mike's Roundpen Bible Study on Wednesdays at 6:30 and Celebrate Recovery on Fridays at 7:00. Check out our website and calendar for lots of other events coming up.

If you're looking for meaning and purpose in your life come and join us. There's something for everyone and you'll be blessed. Have a blessed week and Happy Trails!
