Living for the One who branded us....JESUS!!

Hope you all had a wonderful week. The week ended on a fantastic note Sunday at B3C as over 450 folks listened to award winning "Branded" as they performed for us. They have an amazing ministry in their music and witness as they go all over the nation. They perform in many different venues and have opened for Kelly Pickler and other famous entertainers. They are currently planning a mission trip to the Philippines next month and have a USO show in the makings for the future, possibly with the Zack Brown Band. We collected a nice love offering for them and they sold lots of CDs and t-shirts. We were all blessed by their performance.

Sunday afternoon John Suits held the first of four free obedience training classes for dogs at the church. They had around sixteen owners and dogs there and some extra spectators. Everyone was VERY impressed with his knowledge and skill in what he teaches. There will be a class the next 2 Sundays, skip one, then the last one.

Sunday evening some of the B3C band went to the Lone Oak fifth Sunday singing which was held at the Methodist church this time.

Saturday morning will be the monthly men's breakfast, so all you guys come on out and join them for some good grub and Christian fellowship.

Don't forget to mark your calendars for the Valentine's Day variety show at the church. There are already numerous acts scheduled and I'm sure Brenda Boen could still find a spot for you if you're interested.

I'm not sure of the exact week, but soon there will be a Bible study on Revelations starting on Wednesday evenings at 6:00 at Pastor Mike's Round Pen study.

That's about all the news for this week. Come on up and visit us at Bull Creek. We love new folks and welcome you any time. Just come on and make yourself at home. Remember religion is meant to be bread for daily use, not cake for special occasions! Happy Trails!!
