Living for the One who branded.....JESUS!!

We had such a blessed week and a particularly amazing service Sunday. We had some great music and a special tribute song, the new hit “The House That Built Me” by Miranda Lambert, sang by Amanda Pruitt in dedication to the 2010 Seniors. With video playing pictures in the background, it was a great tribute to them.

Pastor Mike brought an amazing message titled “Just Text Me, OK, Luv Ya”, using the story of the Good Samaritan, showing how we should not hurry along, but take the time to do what we know is best.

“God is not unjust; he will not forget your work and the love you have shown him as you have helped his people and continue to help them.” Hebrews 6:10 (NIV)

Last Sunday’s trip to Six Flags for the youth was a great trip. They all reported having a wonderful time.

The Hunt County Cowboy Gathering was a big success on Saturday. The final count on the amount raised for Women In Need is not ready yet, but I know they will be blessed by it. For the rodeo, the weather was hot, the arena was muddy, and it got pretty wild. Everyone had a great time. Some of our own from BCCC won the wild steer saddling contest, Brian Gibson and his son Kyle and son-in-law Trevor.

Wednesday evening at 6:00 will be the last of the Revelation Bible study. Brother Larry Davis has done an amazing job. There has been an large group every week and many have not missed a lesson.

The Feedlot sorting Series event will be Saturday at 9:00. Come on out and watch the event and enjoy something from the concession stand.

Check out the website for all the other roping events, ladies riding workshops and numerous other events for horse lovers. In the plans for this summer is a Hoofin’ Foot Rodeo for the kiddos. More details later.

Hope you all have a blessed week. From all of us at Bull Creek, Happy Trails and God bless!!
